Mountainsong Galleries is like nothing else in Carmel. It is a fun gallery with an all California theme. Original oils, fine art photography and bronze sculptures capture the beauty of many fabulous places in Carmel and throughout California. Songs about California add to the festive atmosphere.

There is plenty of comfortable seating. Guests are offered spring water, coffee or tea and invited to relax and enjoy the art, the music and the ambiance.

Now the exclusive gallery to represent the world renowned toothpick sculptor, Steven J. Backman. Steven has done portraits for Oprah, President Bush and Lou Dobbs. He sculpted a small cable car for President Clinton. He sculpted the Empire State Building which was featured for their 75th anniversary. He has been on the CBS Early Show and CBS News Sunday Morning. His 13' golden gate bridge is currently in a museum and valued at $225,000. Come see his work!
