SEQUOIA UPDATE

Our “Mister Baby” is really enjoying his ability to walk. He just loves his morning and evening walks up and down Ocean Avenue and around the block. He is proving to be quite the shopper. He goes in the same stores on every walk and checks out the same merchandise. If something has sold he ponders what’s going on and looks up wondering “where did it go?” He is sleeping less during the day and enjoying his active time. Of course when he is awake one of us needs to devote 100 percent of our attention to him. We are just so thankful that we can all be together as a family doing what we love to do.

Mr. Bo Jangles Update by Mr. Bo Jangles

Finally, they let me write. They keep writing about that baby and nothing about me – the most important part of the gallery. I work tirelessly greeting everyone that comes into the gallery. I'm not entirely sure what they do anyway and that baby, I'll tell you sometimes that baby cries and it's not pretty!

As for me, I am doing quite well and it is my birthday on September 1st! Did someone mention gifts? Well, it's really not necessary but if you insist I do love dog treats of any kind. I have been enjoying an afternoon walk with one of our local Friends of the Gallery. We have so much fun together.

Just in case you don't know who I am... I am the attractive Australian Shepherd with those sweet eyes and quite obviously the owner of this joint!

Looking forward to your next visit,
